22. Alumni Association and its Activities:

August 28,2003 was a historic day for the college students. The Ghazal Samrat Jagjit Singh, one of our proud alumni, visited the college on the special invitation by the Principal. He was honoured at a special function.

The Guest of Honour studied in this college about 44 years back. He arrived in the college quite early and went to see for himself the classrooms where he used to study between 1959-1963. A large number of students rushed to have a glimpse of him. They chased him wherever he went. It bespoke of his popularity. Accompanied by the Principal, members of the faculty, and a few famous Punjabi singers, he took a round of the college. He formally inaugurated the Pandit Mehar Chand IT block of the College.

Then he was taken to the jam-packed college auditorium where cheered by the enthusiastic gathering. Accompanied by Sh.K.L. Aggarwal, Chairman of the Local Committee of the College, and some numbers of the staff, Principal Subhash Kumar presented a silver salver and other memorabilia to the distinguished alumni.

Principal Sh. Subhash Kumar, while welcoming Sh. Jagjit Singh, enumerated some of his achievements in the field of Ghazal singing. He remarked that the college was proud of the fact that such a luminary was in their midst. He congratulated him on being conferred with Padam Bhushan by the President of India.

In his brief but impressive speech, Padam Bhushan Jagjit Singh also recalled his student days in the college. "I used to eat eggs at a dhaba near the railway crossing. My fee and hostel charges were borne by the college authorities", he said. He expressed his happiness to be in the college where he spent six precious years of his life. He went on to add that it was like a home coming for him.

With a tinge of pride in his voice, the renowned singer said, "It was DAV College which had given him a proper platform in undivided Punjab to become a popular singer way back in 1959 in a youth festival".

On persistent demands, he enthralled the audience with a few lines from his popular Ghazal. Before leaving, he promised for an early next visit.

23. Health Services:

The College has a well-established 'College Hospital' with qualified doctor and Paramedical Staff to provide health services to both day scholars and hostellers. However, there are super speciality Hospitals within two km radius of the College. In case of emergency College Staff Car is ever ready to take any 'student patient' to the Hospital.
