

“An Economist is an Expert who knows tomorrow, why the things be predicted yesterday didn't happen today ”— Peter, Laurence J.

The Post-Graduate Department of Economics was established in 1918 and in the beginning the subject was taught at intermediate level. Prof. R L Bhatia, a graduate from London School of Economics was the founder Head of the department. Economics at graduate level was introduced in 1929 and at Post-graduation level in 1948 under the leadership of Prof. R N Chopra. Later, B.Sc. (Economics) was introduced by Department in order to build up strong foundation at graduate level. Also, the department is going to re-introduce BA (Hons) in the session 2015-16.

The department is presently running under the headship of Dr. Suresh Kumar Khurana, who is also the founder Editor of the bi-annual Research Journal –

“The Economic World - A Research Journal of Economics and Business”

, being published by the department. The department is also maintaining the News Panorama daily for updating the knowledge of the students.
